

July 8, 2016
Doubting Thomas Gallery Exhibit Opening
Tremont, OH

A dozen Euclid Art Association members responded to Laureen Deveney's invitation to participate in a July group show at the Doubting Thomas Gallery, 856 Jefferson. At the Walkabout Tremont Second Weekend opening on July 8, soil sent from various states filled a U.S. map outlined on the gallery floor, so guests could literally "Walk Across America -- Vacation: Cleveland" as part of the show's theme. Extended summer gallery hours 11:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m. daily will accommodate patrons though July with the expected influx of visitors to the CLE. We thank Ellen Howard and Lee Peters for sharing these pictures with us.

Laureen, Lee and Ellen place soil from various states on the map of US for Walk Across America.

EAA Members Art on Exhibit....

