

Euclid Art Association January Zoom Show & Tell Monday, January 9, 2023 @ 7:00p.m.

The first gathering in the new year was held on Zoom in the comfort of our own homes. No one needed to venture out into the cold dark night. It's times like this that zooming is the best way to get together. We had 23 participants, including one potential new member; 16 members submitted artwork, pictures or videos to share with the group. Our president, Lee Peters opened the meeting on time with a short business meeting. We discussed whether or not to have a Virtual Winter Show. The show deadline passed on December 30 with only two entries. We wanted members' input. Some liked the idea of still holding a virtual show this winter, some thought it was too close to our Spring Fine Art show and some liked the idea of moving the virtual show to the fall. No final conclusion was reached this evening and it was tabled until the next board meeting.

Next, Lee shared a 5 minute video of our Christmas party and Chinese Auction fundraiser held at the Lithuanian Club on December 5. It was a composite of the images taken by member photographer, Dennis McDonnell....thanks, Dennis.

Show and Tell started next. Lee spotlighted each submission and we discussed, commented and asked questions. We learned about different techniques and art opportunities. The submissions varied greatly from amazing acrylics and watercolors, pencil portraits, self-portraits in oil, Snow Days 2022 video collage, Michelle's Gingerbread House, Sue Ann's handmade bags, to a picture tour of Nebraska and Lee's AI generated artworks on Mars. Several members participate in the Pretentious Cleveland Portrait Artists every Friday night 'live' on FaceBook. It's free and goes from 7:30pm to 9:30pm with a 'live' portrait model. Suzette shared something new that she is now dabbling in, 'handmade books' and 'intuitive scripting'. Here's a sample of what was shared:
