PROGRAM

Our demonstrator this month is Mary Alice Valvoda, the founder and owner of MAVZPIX, located in Highland Heights. Mary has over 25 years experience in taking and processing black and white and color pictures and using computer technology. Using state of the art digital technology, she is talented and skilled in restoring her clients' photos, documents or art work, as close as possible to their original state; or transforming them into new photo images that become family treasures for now and future generations. MAVZPIX also has Giclée prints of selected local artists who have contracted with Mary Alice to scan/print/frame copies of their work.

She will be showing examples of the process of Giclée printing using archival pigment inks on fine art papers or canvas as well as her work in photo restoration. Visit her website: www.mavzpix.com.

THANKS TO ALL

Our demonstrator last month took ill at the last minute and was not able to appear. We would like to thank Linda McGreevy and Fritzi Stansbury, who let us use their art supplies, as well as East Shore Church who generously let us use a pad of drawing paper. Using chalk, pencils and other medium, our members once again proved their creativity as they spent the time producing many fine works of art.

Thanks also to Annette Fiorelli, Sue Ann Kulsar and her daughter Beth for the great job they did hosting our October meeting. We all enjoyed delicious homemade treats and Halloween candy. The table was nicely decorated with pumpkins and "eye" balls! And, the treats were served by our own "Pirate of the Caribbean".

BRECKENRIDGE SHOW

It's time for the Breckenridge Village Winter Fine Art Show. We included applications with this mailing. All entries must be received by Tuesday, November 27th. Please note that the restrictions on frame size determines the number of entries per member, either one or two.

MEMBERSHIP BOOK

Our 2012-2013 Membership Book was passed out to all who attended the October meeting and is being mailed to everyone else with this newsletter. Please look it over and let us know if there are any mistakes.

TIME TO START THINKING ABOUT CHRISTMAS

In just a little over a month it will be time for our Christmas party. At the November meeting, we will pass out copies of a letter signed by our President, Lee, which you can use to ask local businesses that you frequent for donations to our Chinese Auction. The proceeds from this raffle go to our education fund. This allows Euclid Art to offer our annual Margaret Hain art scholarship to a graduating art student at Euclid High School. If you can't come to the meeting and would like a copy of this letter, please call Lee Peters at 216-531-6349.

EAA MEMBER NEWS

Dennis McDonnell and Donald Miller will have their pictures hanging in the Euclid Library Art Gallery during November.

The East Shore Unitarian Universalist Church in Kirtland, OH is having their Fine Art Show and Sale on Saturday, November 10 from 10am-5pm and on Sunday, November 11 from 1pm-5pm. Several of our members participate and it is a really good show. Visit their website at www.eastshore.org.

IN THE SPIRIT OF HALLOWEEN

The good witch, Fritzi Stansbury and pirate, Beth Kulcsar were all ready in the Halloween spirit.
