Euclid Art Association Art Show Categories:

Select a category for each work of art. Use the number of the category on your entry form. The judge will use these categories for selecting award winners.

- 1. Oil/Acrylic: Painting created using any oil or acrylic paint.
- 2. Watercolor: Paintings created with watercolor paint.
- 3. Graphic Art: Drawings using any dry medium, including pastels, ink or marker. Also includes fine art prints, calligraphy and design for flat printed images.
- 4. Mixed Media: Art in which more than one art medium plays a significant role. Works of art in which the surface has been interrupted by cutting, pasting, attaching or layering. (If a watercolor painting has a few pencil lines, or marker drawing has a few spots of paint, use the category of the obviously dominant medium rather than Mixed Media.)
- 5. Photography: Whether taken on film or digital format, works in this category capture something seen by the photographer. If changes are made to enhance dark & light, color, focus, etc. but the original subject is still intact, then the work belongs in this category, along with any image made in a darkroom.
- 6. Digital Art: Subjects from real life that are altered or combined to create an entirely new image, or any image created initially with a digital drawing or painting program.
- 7. Three-dimensional Art: Includes pottery, sculpture. No jewelry in Library Show.

Points to Remember:

Delivery and Pickup:

- If times are not convenient for you, plan in advance with an art club buddy who may be available.

Groups or sets for library show:

- A single grouping, with a maximum of three parts, counts as one entry.
- One group or set per artist.

Hanging and display:

- Be sure two-dimensional work has a secure wire.
- No hanging hooks.
- Avoid entering work requiring extraordinary or unusual hanging techniques.
- No wet oil paintings. The painting MUST be completely dry.
- Crew will hang work to best display the whole show.

Sales:

- If work entered in the show is sold after entry form is sent but before the show is hung (through website for example) the art will be marked “sold” when hung. If the artist notifies EAA that a sale (even through a website) occurs once the work is dropped off, Euclid Art gets the commission.

Responsibility:

- Artists need to be sure that framing/hanging devices/display devices are stable and secure and will withstand careful and necessary handling at the exhibit venue.
- Does your artwork meet the “Art Presentation” guidelines as outlined in “Do’s and Don’ts” for art presentation, available at www.EuclidArt.com on the Art Shows page.
