Sketchbook Tour of India, including Meditative Drawing Technique

Journey through India with David Rankin. In this workshop, each session will start with a combination of drawing, coupled with Yogic Breathing, and ending with a quiet internal meditative focus. With this exercise, the actual drawing is not the goal. "The relaxed drawing process, coupled with relaxed visual focus, gathers the senses from their normal wide open wandering state. Practicing this focused observation begins to still the mind and will increase your ability to capture the image you want to paint."

We will then continue our Sketching Tour of India, working with both pencils, pens and watercolor. Identifying where to start, how to define shapes, increase depth, and create memorable design.
