

Euclid Art Association
Chris Cozen Workshop
“Where Acrylics Meet Stencils”

Saturday, October 19, 2024

Mixed-media acrylic artist and author, Chris Cozen shared the process she demoed at EAA’s February 2024 zoom meeting in which she utilized stencils and acrylic paints to create a lively and colorful composition. Nine artists participated in this class from all over Ohio. In addition to EAA members, two came from the Columbus, OH area and one from near Pittsburgh, PA. Chris openly shared all the processes and tricks she has learned. She encouraged students to layer stencil patterns, vibrant colors, and to create exciting negative and positive spaces within their compositions.

Using the right acrylic paints is important. Chris provided Golden Artist colors acrylic paints and inks for everyone to use. There were lots of stencils to choose from. She gives a ‘shout out’ to StencilGirl Products, iStencils, Artistcellar & Joggles for all the artistic pleasure their stencils offered her and those who enjoyed using them in the workshop.

Artists were encouraged to wear an apron to avoid getting paint on themselves. However, Suzette opted to wear her ‘designer t-shirt’ instead!

Comments:

Marianne - Thank you, Chris, for this excellent class and for letting us play with your collection of incredible stencils.
Suzette - “It was fun and challenging.”
Melissa - Such a great class! I have so many new ideas to try at home.”
