

Euclid Art Association

Presents

JoAnn DePolo

Mixed Media and Acrylic Paints come together in the Art of Abstract Expression

Transform your approach to painting and unleash your artistic vision in this immersive abstract workshop. We'll explore the core principles of abstract composition, experimenting with a diverse range of paints, tools, and innovative techniques. Learn to layer compositions using everything from high-flow to heavy-body acrylics, watercolor inks.

All materials-paints, brushes, applicators, and canvases 16x20 provided. Just wear an apron or old shirt.

Saturday April 5th 10am-3pm

The Euclid Art Gallery 2nd floor Euclid Historical Museum

21129 North Street

Euclid, Ohio 44117

JoAnn initially expressed her creativity as a photographer. Later she transitioned to painting, where her unique vision blossomed. Recognized for her captivating cityscapes, serene waterscapes, and bold abstracts, her artwork has garnered international acclaim and graces the collections of renowned personalities like Peter Max, Kenny Loggins, and Omar Vizquel. Visit her JoAnn DePolo Studio & Gallery, established in 2012, located in Westlake, OH. Her website is: www.JoAnnDePolo.net.

To register contact- Pam Montagno montagnop@aol.com or call 440-622-6020

$95.00 members /$125.00 Nonmembers